

[MEME]

[SCREEN GRAB] When the lockdown of Musjids was announced, A Lenasia Mosque remained open for all Musalees to perform their Jumah Salat. It takes a Muslim to Spy out another Muslim. Beware they are walking amongst us. May Allah guide Bro Ashruff. If this was an Islamic State, his head would have been decapitated.

"We are in a place where if you don't stay silent, you will be imprisoned, and if you don't grovel you will be accused of being a man of bid'a' (innovation in the religion), and if you don't disassemble, or soften your stances, you will be called a fool. The tables have turned, so hypocrisy became 'wisdom' and submitting to the falsehood became 'an intelligent a sane judgement.'"

Sheikh Sulaymān al-'Ulwān:
(May Allāh hasten his release)

The Shaykh is still in Prison and under goes severe torture. He refuses to change his fatwa's. Remember the Sh in your DUAS

MATTERS OF WAR

The signs by which we recognize the sincere believers who are qualified to lead the ummah are three:

- 1) The intensity and ferocity with which they are attacked by the disbelievers and the hypocrites;
- 2) The unprecedented unity their speech and actions bring about among a great numbers of disbelievers and hypocrites;
- 3) The willingness on the part of the disbelievers and hypocrites to overlook and by-pass their own values, ideas and ideals to overcome them.

إِنَّ الْكَافِرِينَ كَانُوا لَكُمْ عَدُوًّا مُّبِينًا

Indeed, the disbelievers are ever to you a clear enemy. 4:101

Sheikhul-Islaam Ibn Taymiyyah (may Allah have mercy upon him) was imprisoned several times, he was jailed and served jail terms five different times in his life. The big scholars of his time all connived against him to call him all sorts of bad names, enemy of Allah, Kaafir, etc. and after much envy and jealousy, Ibn Taymiyyah died as a convicted prisoner, he completed the Qur'an more than 80 times in less than two years in prison. On the 81th round, he died at the last but one ayah of Suratul-Qamar: "Verily, there is Jannah and river for the pious".

Ibn Taymiyyah died as an ex-convict and a serving prisoner but today, he is an Imam and all those "big scholars" and "Muftis" who opposed him are long forgotten.

May Allah grant the same goodness to our present day scholars of Ahlu-Sunnah who are going through same ordeal.
